

Call for Applications

The Department of Jewish Thought and the Franz Rosenzweig Minerva Research Center for German-Jewish Literature and Cultural History at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

will award one doctoral or post-doctoral research fellowship for the academic year 2018/19

On Behalf of

The Olga and William Lakritz Foundation for the legacy of Martin Buber

The successful applicant will be awarded a fellowship between October 2018–June 2019. During this time the fellow will be expected to carry out research related to the legacy of Martin Buber in one of the following areas: German-Jewish philosophy; Hasidism; modern Jewish Bible commentary; 20th-Century Jewish political thought. Furthermore, the fellow will be expected to participate in the workshops, colloquia and all other activities of the Rosenzweig Minerva Research Center at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Applicants may be of all nationalities. Israeli citizens applying for a doctoral fellowship must be registered at the Hebrew University as a Ph.D. student. Israeli citizens who are registered as Ph.D. students at a university abroad will be treated as international applicants.

The monthly stipend is 5,500 NIS. International applicants will be entitled to health insurance coverage. Fellows from abroad will also be allotted a round-trip flight (up to $800 or €600).

Applicants interested in a postdoctoral fellowship must have been awarded their Ph.D. no earlier than October 01, 2014. Candidates can submit an application for a post doctoral fellowship as long as they submit their dissertation no later than June 1st, 2018.

Applications for a doctoral fellowship can only be accepted if the applicant has been a Ph.D. student for no more than five years.

Applicants must submit:

- Application Form
- A letter of application
- Research proposal (3-5 pages)
- Curriculum Vitae
- One example of written work, max. 30 pages
- Two letters of recommendation
- Official M.A. or Doctoral Diploma

All material can be written either in English, German or Hebrew.

Applications should be submitted through the HUJI Scholarships System:

<http://scholarships.huji.ac.il> (the call for applications can be seen under: select faculty > Humanities).

Applications must be submitted by April 30, 2018. Decisions will be made within two months and applicants will be informed accordingly.

Further inquiries:

Phone: 00972-2-588 1909

rosenzweigfellowship@gmail.com